Dragging Pains

2825 Keeley St.,

CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 2, 1902.

I suffered with falling and congestion of the womb, with severe pains through the groins. I suffered terribly at the time of menstruation, had blinding headaches and rushing of blood to the brain. What to try I knew not, for it seemed that I had tried all and failed, but I had never tried Wine of Cardui, that blessed remedy for sick women. I found it pleasant to take and soon knew that I had the right medicine. New blood seemed to course through my veins and after using eleven bottles I was a well woman.

Maudie Bush

Mrs. Bush is now in perfect health because she took Wine of Cardui for menstrual disorders, bearing down pains and blinding headaches when all other remedies failed to bring her relief. Any sufferer may secure health by taking Wine of Cardui in her home. The first bottle convinces the patient she is on the road to health.

For advice in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, "The Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

J. M. Terry, of Harrison county, sold a yearling jack which secured the first premium at the World's Fair, to J. F. Cook, of Lexington, for the exceptionally high price, for a yearling, of $1,100.

Five thousand Tennessee and Kentucky tobacco planters and their friends met at Guthrie and organized for better prices and to fight the trust. President Charles N. Fort, of the Clarksville District Tobacco Growers' Association, presided.

For the big Lexington trots of Oct. 4 to 14, during which $100,000 in stakes and purses will be raced for, the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' Association has secured half fare on all Kentucky railroads and has re-engaged the famous Weber Band, the prize band of America.

HORSE AND MULE SALE.—J. F. Cook & Co. will have another big sale at Lexington Wednesday, Oct. 12, when they will dispose of 350 horses and mules. The horses consist of Percheron mares and geldings, and broke horses and the mules of aged, two-year-olds and yearlings.

LANCASTER COURT.—There were some 50 or 60 cattle on the Lancaster market yesterday and as buyer and seller were far apart not many of them changed hands. I. M. Bruce bought a good bunch of sloppers at 3c. The mule market was lively and a large number of mule colts sold at $40 to $75. Aged mules were in demand at $100 to $150. Few, if any, horses changed hands.

STOMACH DOSING WILL NOT CURE.

Only Way to Cure Catarrh is by Breathing Hyomei.

Ask any physician if catarrh is a blood disease and he will tell you that it is a diseased condition of the mucous membrane and that it cannot be cured by blood purifiers, pills, tablets or other forms of Stomach dosing. The only sensible and scientific way of curing catarrh is by the use of Hyomei.

Breathed for a few minutes, four or five times a day, through a hard rubber inhaler that is so small that it can be carried in the vest pocket, Hyomei will absolutely destroy all catarrhal germs and cure the disease. Penny, one of the most reliable firms in Stanford, giving his personal guarantee with every package of Hyomei he sells that it will effect a cure or he will return the money. He has had scores of reports of remarkable cures of both acute and chronic cases of catarrh by Hyomei.

The complete Hyomei outfit costs $1, and comprises an inhaler, a bottle of Hyomei and a dropper. The inhaler will last a lifetime; and additional bottles of Hyomei can be obtained for 50c.

The amount of life insurance held in Boston is $563,700,000, or about $1,000 for every man, woman and child in the city. These figures do not include the large amount of life insurance carried in the fraternal assessment societies, which have a stronger hold in Boston than in any other city in the union, the headquarters of several of the more prosperous fraternal insurance organizations being located there.

To the World's Fair via Queen & Crescent Route and Southern Railway. Excellent service from South and Southeast. For information address W. O. Rinearson, G. P. A., Cincinnati, O. G. E. Clarke, T. P. A., Lexington, Ky.

To Live in Peace.

A woman may accept a man in haste, but man chooses his wife at leisure. It is to be supposed that when a man asks a woman to marry him he has decided that he can not live without her. If he can't live without her it is certainly his duty to do his best to live with her. This is not always as easy as it sounds. Here are a few sample rules for the wise husband:

If your wife frowns at you, smile at her.

If she smiles at you, laugh with her.

If she is angry soothe her.

If she is gracious thank her.

If she is wise praise her.

If she is economical commend her.

If she is extravagant explain to her.

If she sacrifices her pleasures for you be generous with her.

If she is beautiful appreciate her.

If she cooks well compliment her.

If she is lonely stay at home with her.

If she is tired tend her.

If she doubts you be frank with her.

If she deceives you be harsh with her.

If she is saucy kiss her.

If she is good adore her.
